Message from Bro. Andrew Moss: 'Last Sunday those who counted thought there were about 120 people at the baptism service. Although the service got a bit long I would just like to say what a truly joyful day it seemed to me to be, and so precious to all who were baptised and their close friends and loved ones. I hope everyone enjoyed it as much as I did. I am sure we all want to thank those at Sunbridge Road and BCCC who put extra time and effort into making it the day it was. And let us continue to pray for those who were baptised and for the Lord to continue to bless us all.'
